Weatherization Application Packet

February 2023

Alaska Community Development Corporation (Alaska CDC) is a private non-profit agency that has administered state- and federally-funded housing programs in Alaska, since 1979. This application packet is for the Alaska Weatherization Assistance Program.

- General information about the program starts on the back of this letter, such as where we administer the program, the type of help available, and the primary eligibility guidelines. Other guidelines and restrictions may apply.
- Answer all questions on the attached application even if you don't think they apply to your situation. This helps us understand the condition of your home and its improvement needs and helps us prioritize your application according to program guidelines. In addition, the state and federal funding sources require this information from households in their programs.
- Signatures are required on pp. 6-8.
- Submit all requested proofs described in the application.

• Tenants, request a Landlord-Tenant Agreement (LTA) from Alaska CDC or download it from our website. An LTA is required if you are not the legal owner of the home—even if you don't pay rent.

- Submit your application to Alaska CDC. Alaska CDC accepts applications year-round. However, there always is a wait list, because most work is done during the construction season. The sooner you apply, the sooner you may be served.

After we receive your application and proofs, we might need more information from you. However, submitting an application is the first step toward receiving assistance.

Application processing takes about 30 days. We will inform you of your status by mail. Your patience is appreciated.

Weatherization Application Packet Contents:

- This cover letter with three pages of program information, starting on the back of this page.
- Weatherization Application (8 pp.)
- Postage-paid return envelope

Please note that Weatherization cannot help you buy or build a home. Alaska CDC also administers the Rural Self-Help Housing Program in the Mat-Su Borough, which offers a unique way to establish home ownership. See the enclosed flier to learn how to build and buy a home through Self-Help Housing.

We also offer the Senior Access Program, which makes accessibility modifications to homes of eligible seniors. General information for that program is on the back of the Self-Help Housing flier.

If any part of the Weatherization Application Packet is missing or to make sure you have the most current version, contact Alaska CDC at 907 746-5680 x 1 (Palmer), 800 478-8080 x 1, or www.alaskacdc.org. Tenants also should contact Alaska CDC for an LTA (per box above).

Don't hesitate to ask for help completing the application. Our contact information appears below and on the first page of the application.

ALASKA WEATHERIZATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

Funded through the State of Alaska, Alaska Housing Finance Corporation, the U.S. Department of Energy, and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

- Alaska CDC provides Weatherization assistance in Copper River Basin, Kenai Peninsula Borough, Kodiak Island Borough, Mat-Su Borough, Southeast (except Juneau), the Taylor Highway System, and the Tok area. Other providers serve the rest of the state.
- Weatherization helps low-to-moderate-income households who own or rent eligible homes: apartments, cabins, condominiums, houses, mobile homes, and multi-family dwellings (duplexes and larger).
- Weatherization improvements are designed to help reduce energy use in the home, help reduce heating bills, and help make the home more comfortable for residents. The grant does not pay heating or electricity bills.
- Eligible Weatherization improvements include air-sealing, caulking, insulation, and weatherstripping; replacement entry doors; exterior skirting; clock thermostats; ventilation measures; moisture and mildew control; and efficient lighting. General home repairs are not eligible.
- Trained Weatherization assessors conduct visual inspections and diagnostic tests on each home to identify Weatherization needs. Based on the assessment and state and federal Weatherization guidelines, Weatherization staff will determine the improvements to be made to the home. The Weatherization grant is not given to households to spend. The Weatherization grant directly pays for our trained work crews (or trained contractors who have undergone a competitive bid process) to purchase materials and to make eligible weatherization improvements to homes.
- There is no cost to eligible residents of owner-occupied homes or to eligible tenants. The residents of the home to be weatherized complete the application. Landlords will be asked to complete a separate form to give permission to enter the premises and assess the home, as well as authorize recommended improvements. Landlords also may be asked to contribute matching funds if needed.
- Priority is given to households with seniors (55+), residents who experience disabilities, children under 6 years old, and/or households with income at or below 200% of the poverty level established for Alaska by the U.S. Dept. of Energy. Applicants also may be prioritized for assistance if multiple funding sources or programs can be used for greater cost-effectiveness or if necessary measures are defined as emergencies per Weatherization Assistance Program guidelines.
- Weatherization is not an emergency response program. The majority of work is performed during the construction season. Households may wait a year or more after their applications are approved to receive assistance, including priority households. (Non-road-connected communities might wait longer. They are scheduled to be served after a minimum number of applications are received from them and as funding allows. The more applications received from an area, the sooner it can be served.)
- Funding is limited. Interested households should complete the attached application and submit required proofs to Alaska CDC as soon as they hear about the program to be put on the wait list.
- Restrictions include but are not limited to:
 - The home may not have been weatherized by this program within the last 15 years.
 - The home may not be currently marketed for sale or rent or scheduled for demolition.

- The home must be the household’s primary residence. The household must be available throughout the Weatherization assessment, installation, and inspection process. This process can take 4-6 months. Households that routinely leave the state more than 30 days a year may find their schedules conflict with the program’s installation schedule and may be denied assistance. Households that do not spend the heating season in their homes may be denied assistance.
- The household’s combined income may not exceed income guidelines.

Alaska Weatherization Assistance Program Federal Funding Income Guidelines

Households that meet the guidelines for federal funding are placed higher on the wait list than households that don’t. For federal funding, households must meet the income guidelines under A or B below.

A. Household income is reviewed for the most recent 12 months before the application date.

A household automatically meets income eligibility requirements if an occupant receives ATAP/TANF, federally-funded Low-Income Home Energy Assistance, or Supplemental Security Income (SSI). (Other forms of Social Security benefits are NOT the same as SSI.)

B. Households that do not automatically meet the FEDERAL income eligibility guidelines per “A.” above must undergo a full income review and meet the income limits below.

- Household income is based on gross* income received by all residents for the most recent 12 months or the most recent calendar year.

* except net receipts from self-employment, rental income, royalties, gambling, and/or lottery winnings after expenses are deducted from gross income received

- Household income does not include: any assets drawn down as withdrawals from a bank; capital gains; Child Support received; Combat zone pay to the military; depreciation for farm or business assets; dividends from a Native Corporation less than $2,000/year per resident; federal non-cash benefits such as Medicare, Medicaid, Food Stamps, school lunches, and housing assistance; food or housing received in lieu of wages, including the value of food and fuel produced and consumed on farms; gifts; loans; lump-sum inheritances; non-cash benefits such as the employer-paid or union-paid portion of health insurance or other employee fringe benefits; one-time insurance payments or compensation for injury; one-time payments from a welfare agency to a family or person who is in temporary financial difficulty; one-time withdrawal from an investment account (You must certify it was a one-time withdrawal. It cannot be an annual one-time withdrawal.); payment for care of foster children; reverse mortgages; sale of assets such as property, house, or vehicle; scholarships for college or university; and tax refunds.

Income Limits for FEDERAL Funding as of 2/3/2023

Statewide	36,420	49,280	62,140	75,000	87,860	100,720	113,580	126,440

For larger households, add 11,800 per additional resident.

If your household income does not meet the above Federal income limits:

You might qualify for State funding for the program. Income guidelines for State funding appear on the next page. State funding is very limited, and households eligible for State funding are placed lower on the wait list than households that meet the Federal income limits. Households eligible for State funding may wait 1-2 years longer to receive assistance.

Alaska Weatherization Assistance Program State Funding Income Guidelines

If your household does not meet the income guidelines for Federal funding on the preceding page, it might qualify for State funding. For State funding, households must meet the income guidelines under A or B below.

Weatherization Program Certification

Permission is granted to perform weatherization work on my residence. I understand that funds for weatherization assistance are being provided by Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC). Therefore, AHFC may monitor dwellings on a random basis for the sole purpose of determining that weatherization was accomplished and that program funds were properly expended. This monitoring does not include an inspection or in any way addresses compliance with fire, building, or any other safety codes. According to the terms of the contract between AHFC and Alaska Community Development Corporation (Alaska CDC), responsibility for weatherization work performed on my dwelling must comply with existing applicable codes and/or manufacturers' instruction as appropriate. Alaska CDC is solely responsible to assure this compliance. This responsibility in no way extends to work or conditions not associated with the performance of weatherization work. Accordingly, I understand that it is the dwelling occupant/owner's responsibility to discover and correct unsafe or out-of-compliance conditions which might otherwise exist.

These sections direct the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), which is a sponsor of this program, to monitor the effectiveness of this program and to require a weatherization agency implementing this program to keep records for DOE monitoring. Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC) is the recipient of weatherization funds from both DOE and the State of Alaska Department of Health and Social Services, and is required by 10 CFR 440 to document the eligibility of every dwelling unit weatherized and to maintain records for program monitoring and evaluation.

RURAL SELF-HELP HOUSING PROGRAM

Funded through the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Rural Development)

The Rural Self-Help Housing Program is a group-method of home construction available to limited-income households. Alaska CDC administers Self-Help Housing in the Mat-Su Borough. Alaska CDC purchases available lots that meet program guidelines and are suitable for a group construction project. Participant-households are given a choice of pre-selected house plans that meet program guidelines. Available choices will depend on household size, total loan available, availability of regular income, configuration of the lot, and other factors.

Typical house plans: ranch style 3- or 4-bedroom homes with an attached garage; energy efficient design and construction—5 Star Plus Energy Rating

Lot Locations 2022-2023 Program: Wasilla area (final lots not selected as yet). Lot selection will be on first eligible, first select basis. Additional projects are planned.

An eligible participant-household must qualify for a low-interest loan. Six to ten participant-households are put together to form a group. As a group, these participant-households work together to build each other's homes. Approximately 65% of the construction labor is provided by the group under the direction of a construction coordinator. The remaining labor is subcontracted to professionals.

Each participant-household must contribute at least 30 hours per week toward construction of all participant-household homes. Since most participants work during the day, most of the construction work is done on weekends and early evenings during the week. Schedules vary according to climate and group participant makeup. Homes will be built throughout the year. A typical construction schedule would be 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on weekdays and 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on weekends. This schedule is subject to change based on the group's mutual agreement. One member of each participant-household also must attend periodic group meetings.

Self-Help Housing is available to qualified households in the low-income and very low-income categories. Income guidelines appear below. Priority will be given to very low-income households. Priority also may be given to special needs housing for households with elderly or disabled residents.

Mat-Su Borough Income Guidelines June 8, 2022 (maximum income)

	1 - 4 person	5 person
Very Low Income	$53,000	$70,000
Low Income	$84,800	$111,950

Self-Help Housing provides a unique opportunity for low-income households to build and own their own homes. Successful applicants will have dependable regular income, good credit, the ability to qualify for enough funding to build a home that meets program guidelines, and the ability to work well with others.

Alaska CDC accepts applications year-round. However, interested applicants should apply right away. Lot choice is given on a first-come, first-qualified basis. Furthermore, applicants with imperfect credit may need some time to clean-up their history.

For a Self-Help Housing application, contact Alaska CDC at 907 746-5680 (Palmer), 800 478-8080, or www.alaskacdc.org

SENIOR HOUSING ACCESSIBILITY MODIFICATION PROGRAM

“Senior Access” Funded by Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC)

We provide home rehabilitation grants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicap, or familial status.

- Alaska CDC serves the Kenai Peninsula, Kodiak Island, and Mat-Su Boroughs, Valdez-Cordova Census Area, Tok area (road-connected communities), Fairbanks, and the Municipality of Anchorage. Grants are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis except when it is most cost-effective to blend funds from several sources or for an emergency per Program guidelines.
- This grant improves the accessibility of homes so that qualifying seniors (55 years and older) who experience disabilities may live safely at home as long as possible. Home repairs are not eligible. Requested accessibility modifications must meet program guidelines (e.g., ramps, grab bars, barrier-free showers, lighting improvements, stair lifts, etc.).
- Eligible housing units are houses, cabins, condominiums, mobile homes, apartment dwellings, and small assisted living homes (five or fewer beds and licensed as required by the State). There cannot be a Notice of Default, Notice of Sale, or student loan lien filed against the property.
- The home to be modified must be the current, principal residence of the qualifying senior and the qualifying senior must agree to live in the home up to three years after the work is completed.
- Household income must meet current guidelines. This program uses the same income guidelines used for Weatherization Assistance Program STATE Funding (See pg. 3 of the Weatherization program flier.). (For assisted living homes, call Alaska CDC to determine how to calculate income.) The household must show that it does not have funds of its own or from other sources to complete the modifications. Applicants cannot be behind on paying Child Support.
- This program is free to the senior and the legal owner(s) of the property. No more than the amount necessary to complete eligible accessibility improvements will be awarded. Maximum grant awards are:
 - $25,000 if the qualifying senior is the legal owner of the property.
 - $25,000 if the home is privately owned and the qualifying senior is related to the legal owner of the property and the legal owner of the property resides in the home.
 - $20,000 if the qualifying senior rents the property.
 - $10,000 if the qualifying senior resides in a state-licensed assisted living facility (five or fewer beds).
- If the home is a rental or an assisted living home, the legal owner(s) of the property must authorize any work to be completed under the program.
